

Forecast For London & Southeast England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Friday 24 Dec 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:

Christmas Day, cloudy with rain spreading east. A cold-feeling wind.

This Evening and Tonight:

Evening outbreaks of rain will tend to ease in most places overnight. However, low cloud will become extensive with some mist and fog patches developing. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Saturday:

A damp, murky Christmas Day for many. Some morning drizzle, then more persistent rain spreading northeast to many parts by evening. Feeling rather chilly with a brisk easterly breeze developing. Maximum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:

Boxing Day, overnight rain clearing east, gradually turning brighter, scattered heavy showers, especially along the coast. Monday, a further spell of rain, probably breezy. Tuesday, variable cloud, mostly dry. Milder.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.